UNITED STATES PROBATION OFFICE
DISTRICT OF NEVADA
MEMORANDUM

RE: Luis Ambario-Romero

Case No.: 2:15CR00341

REQUEST TO TRANSFER JURISDICTION

October 27, 2016

TO: The Honorable James C. Mahan
United States District Judge

On June 2, 2016, Luis Ambario-Romero, a.k.a Juan Luis Rodriguez-Rodriguez, was sentenced by Your Honor to Time Served and three years of supervised release for committing the offense of Deported Alien Found Unlawfully in the United States. Subsequently, on July 18, 2016, the defendant was removed to Mexico from the United States through El Paso, Texas, by Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

On July 29, 2016, a single count Criminal Complaint was filed in the United States District Court, Southern District of California, under docket number 3:16cr-01926-001-DMS, charging Juan Luis Rodriguez-Rodriguez with Deported Alien Found Unlawfully in the United States, in violation of 8 U.S.C § 1326. On September 8, 2016, the defendant pleaded guilty in the Southern District of California to Deported Alien Found Unlawfully in the United States. Sentencing is set for November 22, 2016.

As a result of the offender's conduct, our office filed a petition with the court requesting the issuance of a warrant to initiate revocation proceedings. Your Honor authorized the issuance of a warrant on September 30, 2016.

The Southern District of California is requesting transfer of jurisdiction to their Court. This will allow their Court to simultaneously address both the new sentencing and the revocation of supervised release for this case. The Probation Form 22/Transfer of Jurisdiction is attached.

Respectfully submitted,
